Promising 8 Moon-Bound Picture Taking Ride

KENNEDY, FLA., (AP) Craft Ranger 8 streaked the Moon Wednesday to take the first pictures of a man-made plain which astronauts may visit five years from now.

INSECT-SHAPED craft away from Cape Kennedy skillfully executed maneuvers on planned 150-mile-long course which could produce better than the historic set last July by Ranger 7.

Ranger 8 cruised toward its middle point, where the signal is to fire a small rocket aboard the craft to set it onto a collision with the Moon.

It will maneuver for about 6 miles. MSL (most likely) is capable of correcting Moon-miss error of up to 10 miles on either side of target. The flight control at Goddard, Md., has been calculating how much fuel is needed and the proper firing signal.

J. Roman Andrus was in 11 grade, a teacher saw a boy painting and realized that he ought to be an artist.

Dr. Andrus is Professor Emeritus at BYU, selected student Faculty Relations for his outstanding contributions to art.

Dr. Andrus, who has exhibited his works in art shows all over the country, has been on the BYU faculty since 1942, twice in that time serving as chairman of the Art Dept.

Prior to coming to the BYU at the Art Institute of Los Angeles. He is currently a member of the Visual Arts Council of Utah and is a board member of the Institute of Fine Arts.

when the craft is about 99,000 miles from Earth.

If THERE ARE NO hitches, Ranger 8 will approach the Moon around 11:30 a.m. Eastern time, a 40-second payload, each of its six television cameras will take hundreds of pictures before the payload crashes onto the Moon at 5,800 mph, an hour later.

Scheduled impact time is about 5 A.M. Saturday.

The cameras are designed to take pictures from an altitude of 10,000 miles down to within 1,000 feet above the surface and to transmit them instantly to the Goldstone station.

Scientists hope to maneuver Ranger 8 so it will photograph a region near the Moon's terminator, the line between day and night. The target is the sprawling, more tranquil sea of tranquility—which is in the East Central portion of the Moon as viewed from Earth.

HIGH HOPPER Project officials said that if the probe lands in tranquility, they would be satisfied with any mere landing on the shadow line. The maria on the Moon are relatively flat plains which would make the best landing areas for astronauts.

Harold Schuster, Ranger project manager for NASA's jet propulsion laboratory, said pictures taken near the shadow line would have most complete and better definition of crater because of longer shadows cast by mountains, rocks and other features. The shadows also might reveal craters which were too shallow or too small for Ranger 7 to detect.

The Ranger 7 photos were taken in an area far from the terminator, near the mare rubrum, the sea of clouds. This region was named mare cognitum, meaning sea that has become known.

TRANQUILLITY ALSO IS a darker plain than cognitum and is free of crater rays. Cognitum is covered with rays of material belched spilled onto the surface when the giant crater Tycho was formed, perhaps by a lunar collision with a large meteor centuries ago.

The major finding of the Ranger 7 pictures was that at least part of the Moon's surface is covered with thousands of craters down to only 18 inches in diameter, and probably smaller.

Red Failures Ripen Hope Study Shows

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Failures in Soviet economic policy may have made the time ripe for rapprochement between Russia and the United States, a study sponsored by the Committee for Economic Development said Wednesday.

THE STUDY SAW sure demand for Russia's boasted aims of surpassing American output by 1970—"or for a very long time after." It also suggested that Russia may be risking loss of its World Communist leadership to Red China.

Russia must acquire technology which is available only in the United States, the study concludes, if the Soviet is to stay at the helm of World Communism and offer a model for undetermined nations.

AMERICA THEREFORE can demand high price for trade, the study says and concludes: It is time for the United States administration "boldly to re-examine its policies except the risks and responsibilities of the Free World system of peaceful trade competition, resulting in Khrushchev's proposal of long-term U.S. S. Carter." "If this were to happen, a possible beginning would have been made, however discreetly, upon the establishment of conditions without which the Cold War can probably not be liquidated," the study said.

Racial Terrorist Cells Under FBI Surveillance

NEW YORK, (AP)—Racial terrorist cells in other American and Canadian cities reportedly under surveillance Wednesday have links to the Unwarranted dynamite used against the Statue of Liberty and two other national shrines.

PUBLISHED REPORTS mentioned Cleveland, Detroit, Washington, Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Toronto and Montreal. In Washington, the FBI had no comment.

The New York negroes and a blonde Canadian woman extremists were arrested here Tuesday, and charged with seeking to blow up the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument and Philadelphia's Liberty Bell. Police claimed to have seized 22 sticks of dynamite.

"We know they have made contact in other cities," Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy declared. "We have no idea how many people might be involved."

"DO YOU HAVE names and addresses?" he was asked.

"Yes," Murphy replied.

"Any further arrests anticipated?"

"The investigation is continuing," the commissioner said.

The four accused are Robert S. Collier, 28, described as the leader of the Black Liberation Front; Walter A. Bowe, 32, supporter of the pro-Castro play for Cuban communism; Khader S.

LMOOC Strikes Again...

Snarfs, Worthals Get Deserved Shaft

Are you still harboring grudges against some of last semester's teachers?

YOU KNOW, those "Snarfs" who took delight in springing pop quizzes, gave automatic "E's" without reading your papers, and never gave $100 for loans to their classes then have been discontinued this semester?

ALL WARDS and campus organizations were asked this vital question this week in preparation for a week of competition that professors are noted to passionately dislike.

"Little Man On Campus" LMOOC, competition is being held this week with deadline for entries Tuesday, Feb. 23.

To be selected and nominated by letter describing the many "virtues" which endear the candidate for the particular honor are Professor Snarf, Worthal, and Louise Lush.

WORTHAL IS characterized by putting in more effort to get out of schoolwork than most people put forth in doing their schoolwork. Worthal doesn't let his studies interfere with his extracurricular activities . . . just so he maintains his 1.8 GPA.

Snarfs would really try to sweet-talk your secret crush, Louise Lush. Louise always wore those short skirts and sat on the front row of Snarf's all-male class, and who may affectionately be called "the man-trap."

Any campus organization or group may nominate candidates merely by submitting a short letter and a petition with 30 signatures for Snarf, and 15 signatures each for Worthal and Louise Lush. Pictures of the candidates will appear in the Universe and will be voted on by the student-body.

Nominations may be left in the AMS office, 424 Y Center.

WINNERS WILL BE announced and presented their awards at the Bitterne Bounder's Victory dance to be held following the BYU-Arizona basketball game Friday, Feb. 26, 10 p.m., sponsored by the Associated Men Students and Daily Universe co-chairmen are Lynn Southam and Maureen G. Young; with Larry Vaughn directing elections; Don Hammer, organizations; Lou Glass, posters; and Joe Ollivier and Les Southam, Bibbler Bounce.

Shelf Of Books Still May Find Needed Use

If you have had the experience common to most BYU students, that of finding that the bookstore will not buy back your used text books (especially the $8 to $10 ones), this is for you.

HERE IS A CHANCE to do your part and put old dusty books to good use," said Phoebe Pederson, president of Dileas Chalean, a campus service unit.

The Asian Book Foundations has appealed to this university to help it collect books for students in Asian countries such as India, Ceylon, Japan, Thailand, Korea, the Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, and Republic of China.

BOOKS NEEDED are university and secondary level books in good condition published in 1950 or later, plus works by standard authors published before 1950.

Dickens, Hemingway, Plato, Goethe, Balzac, etc.)

Books in all areas except Spanish, German, local history, and artistic areas needed, geography, grammar, sociology, art, and music are a few of the areas in which books will be welcomed.

SCHOLARLY, SCIENTIFIC, and technical journals in runs incomplete in 1949 or later will also be appreciated.

Book donation will help in the following ways: (1) supply tools for learning, (2) correct misconceptions about the West, (3) aid English language literacy, and (4) give information for education and civil work.

THIS BOOK COLLECTION project is sponsored by Dileas Chalean. Collection centers are in Y Center, Cannon Center, and Desert Domes.

Mat-huggers Accept Weber State Tonight

The BYU wrestling squad says howdy to the State of Utah in the Smith Fieldhouse at 30. The Wolverine-Cougar tussle would prove to be a real "cat" fight.

EARLIER this year in Ogden the Cougar matmen swam away with a 30-5. The Provo bunch, however, is shaping up to be a much closer match.

The Mountain Cats are 9-1 so far this season and there are still three more to go. They're led by Fred Davis' grapping team. The three include Mac Motokawa and Mike Young at 100, and Dan Grosski at 80-2.

GROSCHKI, a sophomore from Milton, Spain, N.Y., is a junior slalom trumper from Cobleskill State University in New York. In his first year at Cobleskill he didn't wrestle at all because there wasn't a team to wrestle on. So last year Dan got busy organizing and coached their own string squad.

THE SAME YEAR, Dan went to the Junior College National Wrestling Tournament and captured the first place trophy in the 167-pound class.

Grosski is at BYU on a wrestling scholarship. He says that the style of wrestling at the Y is a bit different than what he had. He said the matmen back East work a lot more from the "down" or "mat" position. There are a lot of things that I have to adjust to," Grosski said. "But I'm getting used to it now." He is getting used to it as well evident in his flawless record this season for BYU.

After the meet with Weber State the Cats take on Wyoming Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. We'll take 'em in. We lost last year in wrestling and as a result that contest should be one of the best this season.

Season's First All-American ...

Memorial Services Honor Estes

LOVING (AP) — Wayne Estes, the Utah State University basketball star who was electrocuted a year ago, was honored Tuesday night at the 1964-65 All-American first team.

THE 6-6 SENIOR thus achieved in death the last of four goals he had set in life for himself: college career.

The All-American award was presented to USU basketball Coach LaDell Andersen in a memorial service before 5,000 hundred students in the field house where Estes played his last game. Robert Myers, Chief of the Associated Press Salt Lake City Bureau made the presentation.

"HE WAS AN All-American in a hundred ways," said USU President Daryl Chase. "The kind of gentleman a university president likes to hand a diploma to."追悼會上，USU籃球總教練LaDell Andersen被授予全美最佳運動員獎。

Estes was the first posthumous AP All-American and the first to be named before completion of the regular season. Other selections will be made in March.

THE ALL-AMERICAN athlete scored 48 points against Stanford just two hours before his death for a career total of 2,001—a school record.

That point total was the first of his four goals and the All-American selection was his last.

He also earned a USU fieldhouse record, achieved with his 48 points and for a victory over traditional rival University of Utah. Utah State achieved this 96-85 last Jan. 7.

THE FANS STOOD silent Tuesday as the USU alma mater was played to open the memorial service. Many dashed away tears.

"I wanted to have a service in the fieldhouse where Estes achieved so much," said Chase. "He was Utah State's greatest athlete."

"Wayne Estes has joined the Immortals," said Dr. John C. Carlyle, Dean of the College of Education in which Estes was enrolled as a physical education student.

USU announced Tuesday it would resume its basketball schedule Thursday against Denver—the team the Aggies were playing when Estes scored his last point. Last week's schedule was cancelled.

ESTES HAD BEEN considered too heavy and chunky for college play, although he won all-Montana honors in basketball and football and was state champion in shot put and discus.

When he showed up at USU an overweight

Loshman, he was known "Baby Huey," after a cartoonish goose in a comic strip.

WAYNE PRACTICED hours on end and perfected a driving free shot and a deadly foul-shooting stroke. He was the nation's second-leading scorer when he died, behind Rick Barry of Miami (Fla.) and led in free throws and free throw percentages.

USU decided Tuesday to play the remainder of its basketball schedule despite the loss of Estes.

UTAH STATE HAD cancelled a scheduled game against Texas Western last Saturday and left the remainder of the season in doubt.

USU will resume play Thursday at Denver, the team against which Estes played his last game. Alan Parrish, a 6-8 sophomore will replace Estes at center.

ALL AMERICAN

Wayne Estes became the first All-American to be announced this season. Associated Press chose him Tuesday.
